A Name and Date

Before picking up any tools, you'll need to enter your name and your birthday.

With the dog done, go ahead and give your future favorite feline the purrfect moniker.

New Goals!

That's why he weeded out the Harvest Goddess and the Harvest Sprites, leaving you out standing in your fields. Break his spell by sowing seeds and finding the Harvest Sprites. You'll need to master planting fields and tending livestock. Perhaps a handsome bachelor will help you before a mysterious

thief steals
your heart!

Building Your Farm

Farming literally begins from the ground up in Harvest Moon® DS Cute. You'll have to buy a lumber shed before you can begin adding materials.

Gather Materials

Build your farm structures from fodder, wood, stone and pricey gold lumber. Gotz the woodcutter will always sell you materials, but you'll save money if you take the time to gather your own.

Place an Order

Once you think you have enough money and materials, pick up your farmhouse phone and call Gotz to order.

Survey the Situation

Once you have the money and materials, Gotz will ask you where you want the new construction. Clear out the land before you order.

Natural Resources

Your acres of agrarian bliss might be your property, but you can also plant trees and crops for harvest on nearby village plots.

Wild Fruits and Greens

You'll find edible plants and wild produce free for the taking among the weeds in nearby lots. Pull or cut away at the dense weeds so more valuable plants can grow.

Building Materials

Just because you cleared your pasture of heaven doesn't mean that you're out of resources. Feel free to chop and crush the rock, stumps and sticks on any vacant lot.

Community Gardens

Nearby local lots can be used for garden patches and orchard groves, although you'll find a few spaces more fertile than other patches. Avoid planting more than you can water and harvest within a day or two.

Tools

Farming is tough work, but you can make your daily tasks a little easier with some improved tools and a few important accessories.

The Basics

Your farm depends on five essential tools. As you gain work experience you can improve these implements with ore from the mines.

Upgrading

With every swing you gain tool experience, but you can't upgrade your tools until you have enough experience and ore for the blacksmith. You'll also need to open up the mines at the archeological dig site. When you're ready, call Saibara the Blacksmith during his regular hours and talk to Gray. If you have the experience, ore and gold, he will make an upgrade.

Fishing Rod

Galen gives you a fishing rod if you visit him on Saturdays between 11:00 and 1:00. Be sure not to have a tool equipped when you visit.

Accessories

Just because you have an axe, hoe, sickle, hammer and watering can doesn't mean that you're done shopping. Van and the Yodel Farm sell important accessories that can add to your stamina or increase your daily productivity. Before you buy animals, buy a pair of Touch Panel Gloves so you can provide extra care that enhances produce quality.

Growing Crops

The fastest way to start a farm is with a plot of tilled land and a bag full of seeds. It's easy if you always remember to water!

Till

Clear the weeds, sticks and rocks from a small area of land and use your hoe to create a 3x3 tilled area. Modify the shape of your plot for easy watering.

Water

If it's not raining then you should water your crops. Look closely and you'll notice that the watered ground looks slightly darker than the dry ground. You only need to water a square one time each day.

Plant

Stand in the center square of the 3x3 tilled plot once the soil is turned just the way you want it. Certain crops grow in specific seasons, so equip the right seed bag. Now press the Y Button to throw the seeds up in the air!

Ship

How do you know when your crops are ready to ship? Try picking it up the same way you pick berries or shoots in the other lots. You can't pick unripe produce, but any ripe crops belong in the shipping bin before 5:00PM!

Repeat

Crops like corn, cucumbers and tomatoes keep growing produce throughout the season, so it's important to remember to water even after harvests. The most profitable plants tend to take longer to ripen and require more watering work.

Seeds to Saplings

Orchards and vineyards don't grow like conventional crops and you need to use a different planting pattern. To plant a tree, use your hoe to scratch out a tilled 2x2 square area. First plantings are tricky, so stand in the top left square and face down toward your touch screen. Now sow the seeds and water the patch like any other field crop until you see sprouts. Once the sapling takes root you can let the tree or grapevine grow on its own without the extra watering time.

Raising Livestock

Growing crops provides you with income throughout three seasons, but produce from livestock can keep you profitable throughout the year.

Chickens

Chickens are affordable but they don't offer the same sort of profit that prized cows and sheep can deliver. If you feed and pick them up each day you'll notice that the egg quality will improve, resulting in more revenue. Most frugal farmers buy one chicken and gradually raise the rest by keeping eggs in the incubators.

Ducks

Ducks are similar to chickens except you'll need to order a pond from Gotz for your farm before they can waddle around. Like chickens, ducks munch on feed and prefer staying inside the shed during stormy weather. It's easy to raise a big flock—just keep placing duck eggs inside the bird shed incubator until you have enough.

Cows

Cows require more work than other farm livestock, but they also offer the highest profit potential. Like most animals, cows need to be fed and looked after every day, but you can increase their affection and productivity by brushing them daily and by milking them with the touch screen glove accessory. Cows will eat tall grass growing at your farm, but you'll find it easier to manage your herd if you build a fence around the pasture first.

Sheep

Sheep don't offer the same profit as cows, but they also require far less daily care. Combine the Touch Panel Gloves with the Clippers to collect more batches of sheared wool than if you use Clippers alone.

Fodder

You could buy your fodder from the Yodel Ranch, but the most affordable way to raise cows and sheep is by growing grass and using your sickle to cut it into fodder. You'll also need to order a silo from Gotz so you'll have a place to store the food throughout the winter.

Bachelors

If you want to save the Harvest Goddess, you'll need to find a boyfriend and maybe get married! A boy with a heart next to his picture is a potential husband, but you have to make his heart glow red before giving him the Blue Feather.

Having Children

 Your odds of raising a child will remain high if you remember to keep your husband's affection rating high for at least a full season.

Cooking

Are you looking to do some cooking? Then you need to know a Harvest Moon® DS Cute secret recipe: Upgrading your house is an essential ingredient for any home cooking. You can't do this unless you buy items from the Supermarket for ten days. As a frequent shopper, you'll be rewarded with Channel 2 on the Harvest Sprite Station network and the all-important house upgrade option (a must for future wife-material). Keep watching the Uranus Harvest Sprite on Channel 2 daily for important cooking items that you can order over the phone. Mayor Thomas delivers your TV shopping orders within days of your purchase. You'll be dishing up tasty meals and winning new friends and potential dates in no time!

What's Cooking?

Any good cook requires an upgrade to a proper kitchen. While you're surfing Channel 2, be sure to buy important cooking components like a pot, mixer or frying pan. It also helps to know a recipe or three (see the samples on the next page). Press A while standing at the kitchen counter, select your ingredients and then choose the cooking utensil for making your meal.

Will You Eat, Share or Sell?

The obvious advantage to cooking your own meals is that you can eat while you work to recover your stamina, giving you more energy so you can accomplish more work throughout your day. You can also use your home-cooked meals to win over your neighbors if you know what they like to eat. Vegetable stir-fry and curry dishes are frequent favorites among villagers, although Rick and Romana won't touch the stuff. You can also ship your cooked food if you have a basket from the Supermarket. Cooked food doesn't store well in the shipping bin unless it has been stored in a basket. You can also buy canning equipment and package your food for extra profit.

Shopping

With all the farming, mining, fishing and socializing, there's no time to shop! Smart farmers prefer to pick up the phone and order.

Vesta's Farm -

Open 4 PM to 7 PM,
Closed Mondays

Vesta carries the same assortment of seasonal crop seeds sold at Karen's Supermarket, but she also offers an exclusive selection of fruit tree and grapevine seeds. Because Vesta tends to her fields throughout the day, she keeps short store hours. It's a good idea to start heading for her shop as the afternoon sun begins to bathe your fields in a golden light.

Van's Shop -

Open 10 AM to 6 PM on Dates with a 3 or 8 in Them

Van keeps a small shop on the second floor of the inn, but because he travels between the Valley and Mineral town, he sells his wares only on days that end on a three or an eight (like the 3rd, 13th and 23rd or the 8th, 18th and the 28th). Van will also buy those items from you that you can't ship, like extra seeds or special winnings from the Harvest Sprite Casino.

Shop by Phone!

Don't have time to run to the store? You can buy almost everything you need over the phone if businesses are open. All shops close on festival days.

Poultry Farm - Open 11 AM to 4 PM,
Closed Sundays

Popuri loves your feathered friends and she's always willing to sell bird seed. Remember to pick up extra seed for your hungry chicks and ducklings so they'll grow into healthy adults!

Yodel Ranch - Open 10 AM to 3 PM,
Closed Sundays

Rick is an expert on all merchandise relating to sheep and cattle. Order at least one dose of medicine for every animal (including the birds) on your farm. That could be 28 bottles!

Supermarket - Open 9 AM to 5 PM,
Closed Tuesdays and Sundays

Karen specializes in cooking ingredients and seasonal crop seeds, but you'll need to visit Vesta's farm in person if you're interested in picking up some orchard or vineyard seeds.

Saibara the Blacksmith's - Open 10 AM to 4 PM, Closed Thursdays

Gray works as an apprentice for Saibara the Blacksmith and he's ready to upgrade your tools for a price--provided that you're willing to dig up the essential ore from the mines.

Gotz Construction - Open 11 AM to 4 PM, Closed Saturdays

Expansion is essential for farming success. Order a storage shed, coop, silo or barn through Gotz. You'll save a substantial sum of money if you provide the building materials.

The Church offers weekday services to remove cursed items that you equipped or even take the curse off a rare tool - for a generous donation.

TV Shopping Open 9 AM to 6 PM daily

Harvest Sprites

Open 10 AM to 6 PM daily

Running a farm alone is the toughest job in Forget-Me-Not Valley, especially after you expand your fields, extend your flock and nurture your herd into prize-winning cattle. You'll need a little help in the form of Harvest Sprite teams to help you water, harvest and collect produce for shipment. Each of the ten Harvest Sprite teams specialize in specific tasks and you can only hire one team at a time, so plan according to your farming needs before you talk to Guts at the Harvest Sprite Company Tree near Goddess Pond. Guts will let you hire a team for one, three or seven days, but you'll need to locate a Harvest Sprite on a team before you can place your order.
